School Management Solution

Voice Snap is pleased to introduce itself as a company specializing in using mature voice based technologies like IVRs and Databases (both proprietary and open source).

We provide integrated voice based communication platform that schools can use to communicate to parents. This innovative solution allows for easy creation of content through voice by school authorities.

Connect to Schools is one such flag ship innovative product that has made a great impact in the market. This unique solution helps schools across India to connect to parents by means of a comprehensive Voice based solution.

The voice messages are broadcast to parents and the content is delivered on their phones through our system. Along with any voice module, we also provide SMS facility at no extra charges.

There is also an App supported version of the solution where school teachers and parents can download and use.
